BEWERBUNGS COACHING APPLICATION COACHING

Our individual application coaching in a modular structure supports you in seeking and finding your job, your opportunity or the path to a new job.

Regarding your career choice - Are you still unsure?

When applying, especially after persistent unemployment, there is a high degree of uncertainty compared to what people can offer employers as a "service". Therefore, in the individual application coaching in the modular system, we specifically promote the development of self-confidence of the unemployed as "providers of competences!", sensitise them for a realistic self-perception and train the authentic, convincing applicant appearance in preparation for employer contact.

In your personal coaching:

- pinpoint your goal
- create a comprehensive labor market analysis
- optimise your application documents with the help of expert coaches
- conduct a job search with your coach
- prepare professionally for your interviews
- analyse every job interview with your coach
- work out the basis of your professional future in individual coaching units
