Soft Skill Training

To help people in difficult situations, we offer Soft Skill training.

Together with your coach, you tackle your personal challenges and develop longterm solutions.

In many situations it is helpful to have a trustworthy person to discuss your concerns and needs.

It is even more helpful if this person is a qualified and energetic coach. Your coach will assist you in solving your difficulties, no matter if

- family problems
- dependencies
- pregnancy
- financial difficulties
- or difficult life situations

UNSER ZIEL Our goal

Individual Soft Skill Training ensures that the participant is activated through a support process that is flexibly tailored to individual needs in the form of coaching and small-scale support. The overarching objective is the greatest possible stability in the participants' living conditions so that it is possible to take up gainful employment (medium term). Through consultation with the responsible contact person of the consumer, the coach and the participants identify the coaching needs that exist in the dialogue and jointly develop strategies for the effective dismantling of integration-relevant obstacles (§ 45 paragraph 1 sentence 1)
